Remember:

The words of Robert Brault, "Enjoy the little things, for one day you may look back and realize they were the big things."

Reflections:

It is not discipline, willpower, or pressure from others that facilitates adherence to a challenging course of action; but rather the freedom to choose among alternatives, the personal commitment to a mission, and the willingness to take responsibility for the consequences of one's decisions that embolden the spirit.

Please realize that action is the key to making positive changes in your life. Without action, knowledge is lost. Inaction will not result in fulfillment, taking ACTION will!
